Woman jailed for six years after causing death on A35

A WOMAN who caused the death of a 59-year-old woman in a head-on collision near Axminster, after taking drugs, has been jailed for six years.

Natalie Roach, 29 and of Lyme Regis, was sentenced at Dorchester Crown Court last Friday (July 1st), after pleading guilty at an earlier hearing to causing death by careless driving while over the prescribed limit of a specified drug – cannabis, and a second similar count for Benzoyllecgonine which is a cocaine metabolite.

She was also disqualified from driving for five years and told she would have to take an extended retest before getting her licence back.

The court heard that at around 2.35pm on Sunday, March 15th 2015, a two-vehicle fatal road traffic collision

by Anders Larsson
anders@viewnews.co.uk

occurred on the A35 close to Scott's Lane in Monkton Wyld, near Raymond's Hill.

Roach was driving a blue Peugeot 206 car towards Axminster when she crossed onto the wrong side of the road crashing into a silver Toyota Prius car that was being driven in the opposite direction by Neil Osborn.

Neil, 66 and of Louth in Lincolnshire, sustained serious injuries in the collision that required a lengthy stay in hospital. Sadly his wife, 59-year-old Stella, died from her injuries at the scene.

Roach sustained serious injuries that also required extensive treatment.

The court heard that Roach was not the owner of the car, was not insured to drive the vehicle and had an expired substantive driving licence.

Roach told police during an interview that she had taken cannabis, heroin and cocaine from 9pm the night before until 5am on the morning of the crash.

The court heard that Roach's blood was tested and analysed. A total of 509ml of Benzoyllecgonine was found in her blood – the legal prescribed limit is 50ml. Tests also revealed that 3.1ml of tetrahydrocannabinol (TCH) – the principal constituent of cannabis – was also found in her blood. The prescribed limit is 2ml.

Police Sergeant Joe Pardey, of Dorset Police's Road Traffic Unit, said: "This case highlights that driving while intoxicated whether through alcohol or drugs has huge effects on a driver's ability to drive carefully and competently."

"The consequences can be tragic. A family has lost a wife, mother, grandmother and friend and the effects of this collision will never go away. The death of Mrs Osborn was unnecessary and avoidable."

"While any sentence passed will never be enough to replace a life, I hope that the court's decision today will provide a further deterrent to those who think it is acceptable to drive under the influence of drink or drugs."

"Dorset Police will continue to detect, enforce and charge those found to be committing drink and drug driving offences."

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

SEATON Beach hut break-in victim says CCTV in wrong place

THE victim of a beach hut break-in says the West Walk CCTV cameras in Seaton are in the wrong position, not covering vital areas.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) says it is working with police and beach hut owners, but would not comment on the claim.

Andrew Perkins came back from holiday in mid-June to find that someone had broken into his beach hut at some point between June 7th and 19th. Police have appealed for information.

ILMINSTER Council considers £8k grant for rehab charity

YOUNG South Somerset men at risk of going to prison could be enrolled on a prevention programme if South Somerset District Council agrees to spend £8,000.

Key4Life, a Somerset-based charity that works with young men aged 18-25, has made a request for funding. The charity is planning to run a new programme in Somerset from September 2016.

The district council Executive will make a decision on Thursday, July 7th.

SIDMOUTH Have your say on future of the seafront

LOCAL residents are being asked to help re-imagine the future of Sidmouth seafront – but only have a week to submit their views and ideas.

A worldwide architecture competition was launched earlier this year to find a way to revitalise the Port Royal and East Beach section of Sidmouth.

Judges chose five options which are on display at Kennaway House 10am to 4.30pm until July 12th and the organisers are seeking public feedback.

From the editor's chair This is not war but it's worrying!

THESE are most troublesome times, certainly the most worrying since the end of the Second World War.

I was holidaying in Italy when the EU referendum results were announced and although when we left these shores it looked like Brexit might just edge it, I thought that when it came to putting a cross on the ballot paper, uncertainty over the financial consequence might have tipped it the other way.

We were staying in Amalfi, one of Europe's most popular – and expensive – watering holes.

There didn't seem to be too many Brits around but the Americans were there in great numbers and wasted little time in vociferously expressing their shock in the bars and cafes.

It was slightly disturbing being out of the country when such a momentous decision was made. One fellow Brit, a Scot, I got talking to, likened it to being abroad when Neville Chamberlain declared on the wireless that we were at war with Germany in September 1939.

I don't think I would go quite that far but both my wife and I felt uneasy that we were not at home when this monumental decision was announced.

In my home town there seemed to be a great move towards Brexit, encouraged by a huge debate on social media, but I was shocked when I discovered the figures from the international editions of the British Press which arrive a day late in Italy.

East Devon: 78.9% turn-out; 54.1% in favour of leaving; 45.9% remainers. South Somerset: 78.6% turn-out; 57.3% to leave; 42% remainers. In Pulman's Country 105,000 voted to leave the European Union.

I have always been a Eurosceptic, my view reinforced by the immoral profligacy and sheer greed of those on the Brussels gravy train. A recent visit to the EU headquarters did little to change my mind.

Because we booked our holiday before realising it clashed with the referendum, and the fact that my wife and I were at odds about which side to support, I'm ashamed to say that we missed the postal voting deadline and therefore did not cast our vote.

Politics is one of my great interests but I was unsure which way to go, having listened to every broadcast and read as much analysis as I could. Like so many others, in the end I was unsure.

My preoccupation is to keep my staff in work during a most difficult period for local newspapers. So my main concern was what effect leaving or remaining would have on the advertising market, notoriously fragile in times of uncertainty.

It didn't take very long to find out. Soon after arriving back home I was informed that newsprint – the paper our newspapers are printed on – was going to increase in price, possibly by as much as 10 per cent, due to Brexit and the uncertainty over the pound. No one in my business was surprised in the least.

CREWKERNE Grandfather thrown through window in road rage fracas

POLICE are investigating after a grandfather was thrown through the window of a charity shop after a road rage bust-up.

The 66-year-old man was apparently tailgated by a lorry for eight miles between Chard and Crewkerne, Somerset.

But when he stopped to challenge the trucker a fracas broke out and he was hurled through the window of The Children's Society shop in Crewkerne.

His injuries are not thought to be serious.

Police said they are keen to hear from anyone who was in the area at the time of the incident on Friday, June 24th.

OTTERY ST MARY TIC boss to step down after 12 years

ONE of Ottery's most familiar faces, Phyllis Baxter, will step down from her role as Tourist Information Manager after 12 years... but isn't quite ready to give up helping people yet.

On July 9th the current Ottery TIC will close and take up temporary space in the council offices next door, before moving into the new library.

Phyllis said: "I love Ottery St Mary and enjoy talking about the town. But it's time for other people to help spread the word and help to look after the new exciting TIC."

COLYTON Request to reduce affordable housing at Yaffles development

DEVELOPERS of a proposed 16-house scheme in Colyton have requested that the requirement for affordable housing on the site be reduced.

Planning permission was granted by East Devon District Council for a 16-house development on land north of Yaffles, off Coly Road, in June 2014.

The proposal included 40 per cent affordable housing, equating to six rented units. However, the developer RS Homes (Devon) Ltd. has now applied to reduce the affordable housing provision as it is "not economically viable".

AXMINSTER Woman jailed for six years after causing death on A35

A WOMAN who caused the death of a 59-year-old woman in a head-on collision near Axminster, after taking drugs, has been jailed for six years.

Natalie Roach, 29 and of Lyme Regis, was sentenced at Dorchester Crown Court last Friday (July 1st), after pleading guilty to an earlier hearing to causing death by careless driving while over the prescribed limit of a specified drug – cannabis, and a second similar count for Benzoylcegonine which is a cocaine metabolite.

She was also disqualified from driving for five years and told she would have to take an extended retest before getting her licence back.

The court heard that at around 2.35pm on Sunday, March 15th 2015, a two-vehicle fatal road traffic collision occurred on the A35 close to Scott's Lane in Monkton Wyld, near Raymond's Hill.

Roach was driving a blue Peugeot 206 car towards Axminster when she crossed onto the wrong side of the road crashing into a silver Toyota Prius car that was being driven in the opposite direction by Neil Osborn.

Neil, 66, of Louth in Lincolnshire, sustained serious injuries in the collision. His wife, 59-year-old Stella, died from her injuries at the scene.

"Dorset Police will continue to detect, enforce and charge those found to be committing drink and drug driving offences."

CHARD Local traders delighted with loyalty card scheme success

A LOYALTY card has been deemed so successful that independent traders in Chard will carry on with the scheme beyond the end of the trial period.

Marie Mears at Foto Finish came up with the idea, which benefits both local businesses and shoppers, and got 22 other independent traders onboard.

The card was introduced on May 1st on a three-month trial basis.

Any spend of at least £5 will qualify for a stamp, and when full (20 stamps) the card will enable the holder to redeem against a special offer.

A full card will also see the holder entered into a monthly draw.

Speaking more than two months into the trial period, Marie said: "We now have 27 traders involved and I think participants as a whole are very pleased with the response. We will definitely carry on."

A complete list of participating business and more information are available online at www.chardloyaltycard.wix.com/mysite and on Facebook by searching Chard Loyalty Card.

HONITON New starter home plans revealed

PROPOSED plans have been released for what a new development of 'starter homes for local residents' in the centre of Honiton could look like.

A consultation session was held in Honiton last week where plans were displayed for a 30 home development at the site of farm machinery suppliers Halse of Honiton.

It was announced last month that after 74 years in the town Halse will be moving to a new location at Daisy Mount, near Exeter.

The proposals being put forward by the Homes and Communities Agency (HCA) included 30 two-bedroom starter homes with gardens and car parking on the 1.6-acre town centre site.

Exeter based firm IHC who put together the consultation wrote in the proposal: "The West End site in Honiton is a very sustainable location within easy walking distance of Honiton's local facilities."

"The starter homes would be specifically for local residents as a way to get them on the property ladder."

Date set for next year's festival

AXE Vale Festival organisers have announced the date for next year's showpiece event.

Publicity officer Jan Coman said: "Next year's show will be held on June 17th and 18th – save the date."

Having just wrapped up this year's show, she said: "The organisers wish to thank all who came – visitors, exhibitors, judges and all the volunteers who helped to make it all happen."

"The show is run by volunteers and all proceeds go towards local organisations that serve the community."

"It has become a firm fixture in the local calendar, a place where friends and family meet up and spend the day together."

"Everyone seems friendly and relaxed, and young and old come together to celebrate the great, the good, the quirky and the downright strange things that can only be found at this truly unique festival in the heart of Axminster."

The list of 2016 winning exhibitors is as follows:

New project aims to preserve Axminster's WWII memories

THE Axminster Remembers project will start with a tea party on Wednesday, July 6th in the heritage centre in Thomas Whitty House.

East Devon Voluntary Service Agency (EDVSA) is running the project, which aims to record and preserve the WWII memories of people in Axminster and surrounding area.

The project launch will see students from Axe Valley Community College hosting a tea for older people.

The guests will come along to chat about their WWII memories and enjoy a cup of tea and homemade cake.

There will also be entertainment, with the college musicians and choir singing favourite wartime songs such as the 'Chattanooga Choo Choo' and 'Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy'.

The EDVSA seeks to include those diagnosed with dementia to share and record their memories and to create a permanent record of life at the time.

Commenting on the event, project manager

Katherine Weston said: "This tea party is the start of a project that will bring the community of Axminster together."

"Recording interviews with local people who remember the area during WWII will be a vital resource for future generations wishing to learn more about the history of East Devon during this time."

"Capturing and sharing these memories before they are lost is an important task."

Axminster's role in World War II was particularly significant because it was the southern starting point of the Taunton Stop Line, a Second World War defensive line of pillboxes and anti-tank obstacles, running north to the Somerset coast.

It was also the location of a United States Army base, which housed the 315th Station hospital before and after the D-Day landings, now known locally as Milwey Rise.

Contact Katherine Weston on 01404 549045 to pre-book your free place, as space is limited.

Masons' boost for community foundation

Ian Kingsbury JP, Provincial Grand Master of Devonshire, presents a cheque to Martha Wilkinson, CEO of Devon Community Foundation. Standing with them are Mrs Toni Kingsbury and Barry White, the Provincial Charity Steward

DEVON Freemasons have donated £7,500 to the Devon Community Foundation to help support people in need across the county.

Last month, the Chief Executive of the Devon Community Foundation, Martha Wilkinson, said she was delighted to be presented with the cheque by Ian Kingsbury, the Provincial Grand Master of Devonshire Freemasons.

The donation brings the total donated over the last three years to £19,500 and will be allocated to the foundation's community grants, supporting hundreds of voluntary and community groups offering local people in need of a helping hand.

Ian Kingsbury said: "I am delighted to be able to assist such a worthwhile and important local organisation, helping them to reach out to those most in need in our local communities."

The funds will support community groups like Growing Together who received a £1,000 cash boost for their gardening project for older people and their carers in East Devon, bringing about improved social interaction and better physical and mental health.

Jill, a member of Growing Together Devon, said: "I'm attached to an oxygen machine all the time so I'm restricted in what I can do. It keeps me doing something I love."

Martha Wilkinson commented: "Over the last 12 months we've given £369,842 to 183 local projects helping 53,460 local people in need."

"We could not do this without the support of individuals, families, and organisations such as the Devon Freemasons."

"I cannot thank them enough for their continued generosity, their contribution really will make a significant difference to local people's lives."

New police sergeant for Honiton and Axminster

HONITON and Axminster have welcomed new Neighbourhood Policing Sergeant Mat Helm to their teams, replacing outgoing Sgt Jim Humphrey.

Sgt Helm said: "I have been a police officer with Devon and Cornwall Constabulary since 2000 when I joined as a Special Constable in Plymouth."

"I became a full time officer in 2002 and initially worked in Sidmouth before moving to Exmouth and then Cullumpton."

"I spent six months seconded to the Prince's Trust as a team leader doing youth work and support."

"I was the Neighbourhood Beat Manager for Exmouth town centre for two years dealing with both town and maritime based issues."

"On getting promoted, I spent time in both Exeter and Plymouth police control room managing serious incidents across the force."

"Most recently, I have spent three years as a patrol sergeant in Exeter."

He added: "I have done various diverse deployments within the police including being part of the police fast boat crews at the 2012

Olympic Games, policing the London Riots and policing the G8 in Scotland."

"East Devon is an exciting and beautiful place to live, work and vacation. It's one that, as a resident myself, I wish to maintain as a safe place."

"If you feel I can be of assistance, please don't hesitate to contact me or my team both in Honiton or Axminster."

Brexit won't affect HotSW plans

COUNCILLOR John Osman, leader of Somerset County Council and the Programme Management Officer for the Heart of the South West LEP, has said 'Brexit' will not affect devolution plans for Devon and Somerset.

Cllr Osman said: "We'll of course be following the national picture closely in the coming weeks, but we don't expect the EU referendum result to have an impact on the progress of the Heart of the South West Devolution proposals. "Our Prospectus for Productivity can help us deliver more for our residents in key areas like the economy and social care and all the partners are keen to move the plans forward."

The 'Natty Nats' take on walking challenge

THE Natty Nats is the name of a long-distance walking Axminster duo set to take on the 63-mile-long South Coast

Challenge. Natalie King and Natalie Wakelin are taking on the challenge in aid of Devon Freewheelers, a volunteer blood courier service helping the NHS.

They will join other participants during the August Bank

Holiday weekend, walking from Eastbourne to Arundel, with a stop off in Brighton, over two days.

Natalie King explained how it came about by saying: "I did the Moonwalk (26 miles) in London in May, and a friend sent me a link for the South Coast Challenge and said: "This has to be your next one. I asked Natalie if she was up for it, which she was. We both like a challenge!

"We chose to support Devon Freewheelers because it is a local charity and I know the founder, Dan Lavery, and some of the other people involved."

Natalie Wakelin's longest distance so far is 20 miles, and both can be seen in and around town training for the challenge.

They have set a fundraising target of £1,000 and jointly said: "We are hoping for some business sponsorship, and would be happy to advertise on the kit or in any other way possible."

As part of the fundraising effort they are planning a car boot sale on July 24th.

Anybody willing to donate items for sale can get in touch with them on Facebook or via: <http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/team/NattyNats-Axminster>

Nominate a local group for a community fund grant

THE people of Axminster are being encouraged to think about groups they would like to nominate – or vote for – as part of this year's Aviva Community Fund.

Axminster Health & Wellbeing Centre was one of 431 groups receiving money from the fund last year.

The grant was towards its foodbank, Canned Sunshine, and centre manager Sam Norris said: "The funding we received from Aviva is vital to our community projects in the area.

"For example, it enabled us to help a family who had no source of income for an extended period of time by providing important items such as nappies for a new baby.

"We think other community organisations will benefit in the way Axminster Food Bank has from the Aviva Community Fund and would like to suggest that others apply."

Aviva UK and Ireland customer marketing director Lindsay Forster said: "As Canned Sunshine has shown, the work of community groups across the UK is invaluable and touches the lives of so many people.

"We want to enable great organisations such as Canned Sunshine and so many more to continue this inspiring work, which is why this year we're pledging even more money to the initiative.

"For each person who signs up to MyAviva in June, we'll put in an extra £1, so make sure you get involved to help make this year's prize fund even bigger."

To sign up to MyAviva and add £1 to the Aviva Community Fund prize pot, visit www.aviva.co.uk/good-thinking/community-fund

New president for Axminster Rotary

JOHN Foulkes has taken over as president of the Rotary Club of Axminster.

Outgoing president Chris Painton presented the relevant regalia to Mr Foulkes at a recent meeting of the club.

Mr Foulkes is a Devonian having been born and educated in Devon. After obtaining a first class degree from University of Exeter, as well as being a postgraduate, he pursued his life career in research and teaching.

Now retired in Smallridge, he is married to Barbara with two children and three grandsons.

At the same meeting, three Rotarians received Paul Harris Fellowship Awards – the highest accolade the Rotary movement can bestow on its members in recognition of the services they have given as members.

These were Nick Smy, Chris Painton and Barrie Castle.

■ PULMAN'S View sales executive Izzy Street was part of a four-strong family team in the 5k Cancer Research UK Race For Life event in Sherborne on June 19th.

Apart from Izzy, who lives in Axminster, the team consisted of her sisters Christie and Darci, as well as her step-mum Joe.

They took part in memory of Joe's mum Yvonne and Izzy's nan Jan, who both lost their battles with breast cancer, and Izzy's grandfather Malcolm.

The four team members added: "We also ran for everyone else affected by this horrible disease."

Their efforts have so far raised about £100 for Cancer Research UK, and there is still time to donate.

The quartet started the race together but split up along the course, with Christie crossing the finishing line after 25 minutes.

Izzy crossed the finishing line five minutes later in a time of 30 minutes, followed by Joe and Darci in 35 minutes.

Izzy said: "It was a nice run, in a really picturesque setting. Thank you for sponsoring us, it all goes to a worthy cause. We are hoping to return next year."

Donations can still be made online at <http://bit.ly/29cqRY9>

Man taken to hospital after Lyme Road collision

ONE person was taken to hospital as a precaution after his moped collided with a car in Axminster on Thursday, June 23rd.

The accident happened at 4pm in Lyme Road, and a police spokesperson said: "Police and ambulance were called to the scene of a collision between a moped, registered in Weymouth, and another vehicle."

"The motorist and moped rider had exchanged details. The moped rider had a superficial cut to the head and was taken to hospital by ambulance for precautionary checks."

Knit and Natter group's cream tea

■ SEATON Age UK's Knit and Natter group with friends and supporters at their Devon cream tea event

SEATON'S branch of Age UK held a summer cream tea on June 23rd.

One of their regular events held at Number One in Harepath Road, Seaton, the Devon cream tea included scones topped with cream, jam and strawberries as well as cakes and of course plenty of tea.

Around 30 people were treated to the cream tea as well as the Age UK volunteers.

Thursday afternoon is when the knitter and natter group get together to talk and knit various projects.

This year, as well as knitting the little hats for the tops of drinks bottles which raises much needed funds to keep the group going, they are knitting woolly hats for merchant seamen.

The woolly hats get sent off to the Mission to Seafarers in London who give them out to merchant seamen who arrive in port in the UK from all over the world. Many seamen are from warm countries and the UK climate can be a bit of a shock! So the woolly hats are very welcome.

The knitters have just started a new project knitting PICC line – a type of catheter – arm bands. These are a functional armband that's protective, comfortable and fashionable for patients living with and receiving treatment through PICC lines.

The arm bands prevent PICC lines from snagging throughout the day and while the patient sleeps.

The Knit and Natter group is open to anyone who would like to join in with this friendly, informal group for a very rewarding and sociable afternoon.

Everyone is welcome. There is no charge – just 60p for a lovely cup of tea and a biscuit.

Interested people can call Anne Howe on 01297 24311 or Wendy Millett 01297 625256.

The group meets every Thursday afternoon from 1.30-3.30pm at Number One, Harepath Road, Seaton.

Shakespeare at Pecorama

FOLLOWING on from the success of last year's performance of 'A Midsummer Night's Dream', the Inn Theatre Company returned to the beautifully set Top Spot stage at Pecorama.

Adding yet another sell-out event to their list of tour dates this year, the production by TheatreHub wowed the audience with a delightful rendition of Shakespeare's 'Twelfth Night'.

The location of the stage and adjacent marquee allowed for ticket holders to layout picnics and hampers on the grass, enjoying an open air performance with spectacular views over Lyme Bay.

The weather stuck to the script as well as the actors, with lovely evening sunshine complementing the efforts on stage.

The performance marked the end of the Inn Theatre Company's 'Twelfth Night' tour after more sell-out shows in Exmouth, Torquay and Dawlish and came during the commemoration of the 400th anniversary of The Bard's death.

The production had been recognised by Trip Advisor as one of the 'must-see' shows of the year to commemorate 400 years since the famous bard's passing. Another production by the group, this time 'Romeo & Juliet', starts Dartmouth Shakespeare Week in July.

Likewise Pecorama continue to host events throughout the year with the next being their annual Charity Garden Day on Sunday, July 17th raising money for Parkinson's UK and the MS Society.

A special entrance fee of £6 will apply, with £5 from each ticket sale going towards the two charities.

For more details on all the events happening at Pecorama, see their website www.pecorama.co.uk or follow @Pecorama on Twitter.

The Folly Nursery goes 'global'

They've expanded to another county!

ONE of the great strengths of The Folly is the food, as they put a huge amount of effort into preparing home cooked lunches, with fresh ingredients locally sourced in Devon and now in Somerset!

On the back of the huge success at Dalwood, The Folly now has a branch less than 15 miles away in Somerset, on the edge of Ilton, where they will be continuing their ethos of getting all the children – including babies – into the outdoor classroom.

In Dalwood the 'Mud Kitchen' is where the children prepare their own culinary extravaganzas, which will be replicated in Ilton, and Forest School sessions will also be introduced.

There are two events coming up in the under-fives calendar; Saturday, July 9th is the teddy bears' picnic at Dalwood and on Friday, July 15th there will be an open day at The Folly in Ilton. All families with under-fives welcome.

Twinners meet up in Normandy

ANGLO-French relations blossomed when members of Seaton Twinning Association visited their counterparts in Thury-Harcourt, Normandy.

Both groups were treated to what was described as "an amazing cry" by Seaton town crier David Craner (who was part of the travelling contingent) – in both French and English – during the welcome ceremony.

Seaton Twinning Association member Vivien Rodger said: "The French hosts made Seaton's twinning party feel so welcome, providing a mouth-watering array of authentic home cooked food.

The hosts had put together a busy programme, the first part of call being La Michaudiere, a farm at Juvigny with a large collection of horses – including Bretons, Normands and Percherons.

Mrs Rodger said: "The animals were magnificent and the courage of their young riders was something to be marvelled at. The ground shook as these massive horses galloped past.

"The show was followed by a superb meal where everyone was able to sample some of the local speciality beverages.

"Not to be upstaged by the French cuisine, the humble Brussels sprout was the subject of a spontaneous and very witty cry from our town crier."

The following day the visitors were invited to take part in a fishing competition and Mrs Rodger was delighted to land a sizeable rainbow trout, which she donated to the barbecue. The inward journey had allowed time for the group to visit Sainte-Mere-Eglise.

Mrs Rodger explained: "Everyone had the opportunity to look around the beautiful church and discover the airborne museum and learn more about the paratroopers' experience of 1944."

The journey home provided the opportunity to visit Bayeux where twinners were free to look around the cathedral, shops or view the famous Bayeux Tapestry.

The journey would not be complete without a stop at a hypermarket where the tourists bought gifts and stocked up on supplies of French food and wine.

Seaton Twinning Association is always happy to welcome new members of all ages.

The group usually visits France on alternate years and receives a return visit from its French partners in the intervening year.

There is no requirement to be able to speak French, just a genuine desire to be part of a community group in Seaton and in France. For more information, contact Glyn Roberts by email at pglyn_roberts@live.co.uk or by phone on 07800 903866.

Battle of the Somme remembered

ACROSS the nation, people gathered to mark the 100th anniversary of the beginning of WWI's Battle of the Somme. In East Devon, each town held its own memorial.

Sidmouth

■ RIGHT: Sidmouth residents paid their respects to the thousands of men who died at the Somme, as the bloodiest battle in the First World War was commemorated 100 years on.

The Royal British Legion's Sidmouth branch laid a wreath at the war memorial outside the parish church, as did the town council led by Chairman Jeff Turner and other local organisations.

Axminster

■ LEFT: Those lost and wounded in the Battle of the Somme were remembered during a special ceremony on Minster Green in Axminster.

Members of the Axminster branch of the Royal British Legion invited members of the public to join them in a commemoration of remembrance at the war memorial on Sunday morning.

The commemoration followed the Sunday service in The Minster, both events being led by The Venerable John Rawlings.

Honiton

■ RIGHT: The centenary of the bloodiest battle in the First World War was marked in Honiton by local resident holding a silent vigil in remembrance of those that had laid down their life for the country. Margaret Lewis BEM (second from left), Honiton Museum's volunteer curator, organises the service every year and once again the people of Honiton paid their respects.

Seaton

■ BELOW: A brief but poignant act of remembrance was held in Seaton on Friday, July 1st to mark the centenary of the Battle of Somme.

About 20 people came to the war memorial at St Gregory's Church.

The act of remembrance was organised by the Seaton branch of the Royal British Legion, and included tributes to the three men from Seaton who died in the battle – Lieutenant Colonel Harry Alldayce, Private 18726 Reginald Percy Gigg and Private 20110 George Carslake.

Pre-exhibition critique

AXMINSTER ART SOCIETY: Every year, the society asks their President to view members' work to offer suggestions on any improvements that could be made before the work is displayed in The Annual Exhibition in The Axe Vale Festival.

This time, Lynda White had about 20 paintings to discuss, with a wide range of subject matter, including seascapes, landscapes, townscape, interiors and animals – all done in an equally wide range of media and tools – watercolour, acrylics, oils, inks, graphite pencil work, pen and wash and brush and palette knife work. The style of work ranged from purely representational through to abstract and semi-abstract approaches. Especially impressive was an exquisite monochrome image of a baby elephant, created by Linda Hampson, using the full range of graphite pencils with a special Pergamano tool to scratch through to make whiskers and fine lines.

Lynda asked each artist to explain the starting points of the image and the materials used, so each painting taught something about colour mixing or technique. She also drew attention to the way a painting sat within the space and to the type and colour of framing and how it affected the image.

Her suggestions were helpful and the interchanges with the artists most informative. She appreciated the imaginative and unconventional techniques used by some artists and used these examples to encourage others. She always started and finished with strongly positive comments and when artists asked for advice, Lynda was able to suggest interesting and imaginative ways forward. It was an extremely useful and enjoyable afternoon.

Musbury Moles are 'good'

MUSBURY Moles have just been awarded a 'good' grade following their recent Ofsted inspection.

The report says: "Children make good use of the very well organised learning environment indoors and outdoors."

A spokesperson said: "We pride ourselves on the learning environment we provide and are very fortunate to be based in a large secure area which offers endless learning opportunities."

"The children have interesting and challenging activities to extend their learning."

Musbury Moles are dedicated to ensuring that all children are seen as individuals and develop life skills, having access to resources to develop their learning and exploration further.

Musbury Moles have opened their list for September. They take from 18 months and accept the 2gether scheme, workplace vouchers and early years entitlement.

See their Facebook page or website – musburymolespreschool.weebly.com – for more information.

Horse show this weekend

TYTHERLEIGH Horse show will be held at Chard Equestrian Show Ground (between Chard and Crewkerne) on Sunday July 10th, from 9.30am.

New for this year is an 'Open Trotting Race' for all ages.

A spokesperson for the organisers said: "The show does, and always has, catered for and encouraged all levels of riders."

"We would like to wish everyone planning to compete this year the best of luck, and there are 17 perpetual trophies – some dating back to the mid-1930s – and rosettes to 6th place in every class.

"The committee would also like to say a big thank you to all our sponsors, stewards, judges and helpers, many of which have for many years supported the show without whom the show would not survive and manage to support so many worthy charities that we have done."

EU referendum – and now for the fallout

■ THE Charge of the Light Brigade; The Somme; Gallipoli; Euro 2016; Brexit. What do they all have in common? Defeats suffered in campaigns led by donkeys. Or in the case of Brexit led by a buffoon, a yob and a weasel.

When will we ever learn? What may seem a good idea at the time has consequences without a plan in place to secure the victory, eg Panic.

What holes we dig for ourselves. The buffoon's vision of Paradise Lost. The yob's rant at the European Parliament. I'm not exactly sure what the weasel promised, but he seems to have resurrected himself as a front runner for our salvation as leader of the Tory party.

We have a Prime Minister with no power and his party tearing itself apart. We have an opposition with no idea what is going to happen next and the only credible leader who knows exactly what she wants to achieve, with or without the UK, Scotland's Nicola Sturgeon.

We are a great nation. We could have been even greater if we had: stopped shooting ourselves in the foot; if we had co-operated rather than antagonised; if we had become a player instead of a spectator. If we had sought alliances rather than divisions and recognised that Europe is only 20 miles away and our nearest ally and trade partner.

We are now in the position of digging ourselves out of yet another hole of our own making. For the sake of us all let's hope it's not too deep.

Seaton parking

■ AT the time of the public launch of Seaton Jurassic I asked the leading Councillor what would happen to the parking being lost on the existing Underfleet site. His dismissive response was to the effect that "That car park is the most underused car-park in East Devon - not a problem". I couldn't understand how a project meant to attract thousands of new visitors to Seaton could not need more parking.

Then the (probably always intended) overflow car park, on grassland opposite, appeared as a planning application. Along with others I objected to the loss of green space. I suggested the truly underused grass, next to the tram lines and already contiguous with the existing car park, was a cheaper and less painful choice. No response. So, now we have the approach to Seaton right through the middle of a car park.

But, I ask, has anyone done a traffic management plan? Those seeking parking on entry to the town will first try the car park on the east side of the Underfleet. On busy days it will be full (otherwise why the need to build an overflow?). Disappointed, they will circulate out again and try the opposite side of the road, which may or may not have space. So you will have vehicles stopped in the middle of the road, wanting to turn into and out of both car parks. I envisage traffic backed up to Harbour Road and Manor Road and gridlock in the car parks themselves.

Meanwhile there are plans afoot to reduce parking on what is now Marine Parade and the Seafront as part of the 'regeneration' there - apparently the displaced cars will have access to the Co-op car park.

Doesn't anyone in power join the dots? Are they so desperate to keep projects on track that they cynically, and deliberately, turn a blind eye hoping it will be alright in the end? It's time for a comprehensive Seaton Traffic Management Plan that looks at all the development in train, and proposed, and prepares a cohesive, holistic, solution to shortage of parking. Otherwise, apart from chaos, those areas of Seaton not currently regulated will be inundated with opportunistic, casual, parking.

Send your letters to Francesca Evans at Pulman's View From Newspaper, Unit 3 St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB or email them to francesca@pemedial.co.uk. Letters may be edited. The views expressed in letters are those of the author and not necessarily of this newspaper.

■ MR Neil Parish MP appeared on BBC Spotlight (29 June) to tell us he was backing Boris Johnson for the leadership of the Tory Party. This was very odd since Mr Johnson had not even declared he would stand; within hours he confirmed that he would not. Johnson's chief strategist Michael Gove rubbished the whole idea of Johnson as leader.

Among the breathtaking claims made by Mr Parish in support of Johnson was that he "lived on a farm in Exmoor for a part of his life and has that West Country connection with farming and with the environment and will be good for the West Country". Really?

As for Mr Parish's jaw-dropping claim that Johnson could 'unite the party' how many serious politicians in his own party actually believed this? Mrs Thatcher's former business minister Lord Heseltine stated Johnson "has ripped the Tory Party apart, he has created the greatest constitutional crisis in peacetime, he has knocked £billions off the savings of the British people... he must be answerable to a generation yet to come." A noble thought but unlikely. More likely that Bullingdon Boris will go on to more notoriety and more piles of money.

■ RE: The letter by Christopher R Way.

Winston Churchill said: "We have our own dream and our own task. We are with Europe but not of it. We are linked but not combined. We are interested and associated but not absorbed."

After the war, Churchill said that he supported some kind of 'United States of Europe' but I don't think the United Kingdom should be part of it.

Councillor impugned

■ I WAS shocked to read Kathy Hackman's letter in last week's edition that sought to impugn the integrity of local Councillor Andrew Moulding when he quite rightly declared his list of Personal Interests at a recent Axminster Town Council meeting.

In order for absolute transparency, as promoted by Cllr Paul Hayward the new Mayor, it was recently proposed by Cllr Moulding, seconded by Cllr Hayward and agreed on Monday, April 11th (Minutes item 2016/0168) that Councillors should declare their interests at the start of meetings to avoid any possible confusion.

Cllr Moulding's interests declared at the 12th May meeting (Minutes item 2016/0193) included his involvement with some 12 charitable, voluntary, community and self funding organisations that are on the whole for the benefit of the people of Axminster & District. Public support and funding is welcomed and needed by these organisations. By getting out and about, attending committees, supporting events and meeting a cross-section of townsfolk it gives anyone holding council position a great opportunity to communicate with constituents of every age and support local good causes. I would encourage councillors with few or no interests in local organisations to consider joining some and widen their scope.

And yes, I must declare my interest, I have every admiration and respect for Andrew, a dedicated public servant, whom I am proud to call a friend.

Axminster events praise

■ I AM writing to thank Councillor Mervyn Symes and his Residents Committee for the fabulous series of events arranged to celebrate the Queen's 90th Birthday.

The Committee arranged a superb street party on the Saturday which some 650 people attended. It really brought out the spirit of the community in Axminster.

We enjoyed a wonderful afternoon with lots of entertainments and basked in the sunshine and merriment.

I must add a big thank you to our Town Crier Nick Goodwin who does a magnificent job and is such a loyal supporter of Axminster events.

"12 Top Tips To Help You Choose Your Childs Nursery"

HERE AT Sunny Days Nursery we understand that it's hard to know where to begin in finding the right place for your treasured children so we have prepared a list to help you on your journey.

1. Is the nursery bright, light, well resourced with high quality toys and full of the children's work?
2. Does the nursery have a low turnover of staff? A stable team of staff is usually a good indicator of what it is like to work in that nursery and that it is well run and a happy place to work?
3. Are the staff all qualified and very experienced in the age groups that they work with?
4. Are the children happy, engaged in activities and communicating and bonded well with the staff?

5. Each child will have a key worker who is responsible for your child's care. Ask to speak to the room leader and possible keyworker for your age child. These staff should be confident, able to understand your child and start with where your child is at. The staff need to be warm, caring, welcoming and able to make you and your child feel comfortable and special.

6. Clear communication should be displayed on the wall about how the day is structured, which activities they will be doing and weekly planning displayed.

7. What is the food like? Is the meal freshly cooked on site and based on a healthy diet full of fresh fruit and vegetables? Menu's need to be available to parents and displayed.

8. Is there an outdoor play facility and if so is it safe, well resourced and a vibrant play and learning environment?

9. Are policies and procedures fully available to parents on safeguarding, sickness etc.

10. When was the last Ofsted Report carried out and what were the findings. A report offers a snapshot of the nursery on that day and is a guide. Remember that most mums and dads choose on gut instinct ... does the nursery feel right?

11. Ask to speak to other parents about how they have found the nursery if there is no one to chat to on the day of your visit.

12. Visit three nurseries to develop a sense of what you and your child are happy with and looking for in a setting.

Devon Age UK

Age UK Devon introduces a new Home Support Service to your area

AGE UK DEVON has delivered quality home support across parts the county for over twenty years. We are now launching the delivery of this service in the Sidmouth, Seaton and Budleigh areas.

We understand that as we get older some household tasks can be a challenge. Older people have also told us that companionship, conversation and pursuing hobbies are important to their quality of life.

Our Home Support Service aims to meet these needs to enable older people to make the most of later life and stay independent in their own home. We will endeavour to match each person to a Home Support Assistant who shares the same interests or outlook, so that it is easier to get along. Whenever possible, visits are by the same assistant, to build and provide reassurance.

Our dedicated Home Support Assistants offer:

- Cleaning and housework
- Companionship
- Support with attending appointments
- Shopping escorted and non-escorted
- Household management

• Meal planning and preparation

If you, or someone you know, would benefit from our service, contact us to discuss your needs. New clients will be visited for an initial assessment, during which a personalised support plan will be developed with you. If your situation changes, we can adjust your plan to meet your needs at that time. We aim to be as flexible as possible.

- Our staff are carefully selected, thoroughly vetted and trained.
- We are covered by comprehensive liability insurance.
- The Home Support Service operates between 9am - 4pm, Monday to Fridays.

For more information, including our charges, please call us on 07467911956, visit www.ageukdevon.co.uk or email: m.philip@ageukdevon.co.uk

Cook, Taunton

DO you fancy a break from the Kitchen? A spot of help with the evening meal? Or maybe a greater choice than you are used to? Well, COOK can help. They have been making frozen ready meals since 1997 and in that time have perfected their meals to ensure they look and taste homemade.

Their founding principle was to cook using the same ingredients and techniques you would at home, and today, nothing's changed. They don't use any additives or preservatives, just quality, wholesome ingredients. An individual chef makes each dish and their name even appears on the label of your meal.

They offer a range of portion sizes, and cover everything from Cottage Pie to Salmon and Asparagus Gratin, Macaroni Cheese to Beef Bourguignon and Beef Madras to Pad Thai.

They have a chain of 85 shops across the country and offer a free delivery to this area (minimum order of £30).

Chris and Astrid Birch run the nearest shop, which is in Taunton. They would love to hear from you if you, a friend, or a member of the family could benefit from the convenience of a delicious COOK delivery, please call 01823 323001 to request a menu or visit www.cookfood.net.

Terry New Denture Clinic

Dentures from the comfort of your home

TERRY New's Denture Clinic offers a service that few can compete with. Terry has been in the denture business for more than 30 years, and got introduced to the business by a relative who was a technician as well.

He visits a lot of homes, and is one of the few practices in the country who is legally qualified to make dentures without the involvement of a dentist. He can make dentures straight to the public, which saves a lot of time and hassle.

"I do a lot of home visits, and meet a lot of people and go to a lot of residential homes," Terry said. "I offer one on one service, at competitive prices."

Prices are extremely competitive even for those with a limited budget. Terry also offers a denture repair service, while customers wait.

"As I work from home, I do offer service at weekends, if I am around."

Based near Ashcot in Somerset, Terry can do home visits within a 25 mile radius of his home. For more information call 01458 210039 or cut out and keep this advertisement for future reference.

We are a local family run business that also supplies mains and battery powered security devices. Our trained engineers are always keen and ready to help out. We supply a repair and maintenance service for our purchasers too - with free local delivery and assembly of Mobility Scooters.

Also our riser recliner chairs are certified by FIRA - the leading authority on furniture testing. You can purchase these with confidence that they have successfully passed the relevant strength, stability and durability tests.

You are welcome to visit our showroom - however - if you prefer we can arrange for one of our mobility centre team to come and visit you in the comfort of your own home.

Lyme Bay Mobility

MARTIN welcomes browsers to his new showroom just on the edge of Seaton.

This new business in Seaton already has dozens of happy clients since the start of 2015, who have new-found freedom with their new mobility scooters to explore their town and locality.

Having plenty of parking and demonstration space, Martin welcomes visitors to the showroom, where new scooters can be tested nearby and under safety supervision.

In a relaxed atmosphere, Martin will demonstrate the latest mobility scooters from leading manufacturers, and give potential buyers more choice to buy exactly what they require.

Martin says:

"It is almost impossible to get satisfaction buying a scooter on the internet, because each client is different in their individual personal requirements. Our customers can be assured of the right product for their needs. In each case I talk the customer through every aspect of their purchase.

Once a sale is complete we will be here to help if they have any issues at all. We can take away a scooter for repair or service and usually lend the customer a courtesy scooter if required"

The Wild West Country

ACCLAIMED Somerset based artist Nancy Farmer returns to Ilminster Arts Centre for a much-anticipated solo exhibition.

Nancy's latest work takes its cue from the medieval Bestiary, or Bestiarium vocabulum; an illustrated compendium of Beasts. Inspired by this cataloguing of creatures and curiosities, Nancy has illustrated some of the fanciful and fantastic beings to be found in her home county: inhabitants of the levels and the hills near her studio.

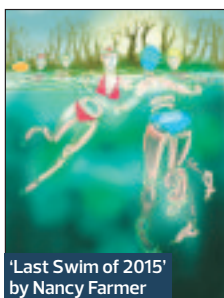

In keeping with medieval tradition, she has favoured imagination over research and has made a lot of them up. Pollarded dryads, rhyme maidens, the flying pigs of High Ham, a fairy queen in her barge, a posse of irritated swans and other curiosities people this very local landscape. Blending myth with satire, Nancy's paintings are painstakingly created in gouache and watercolour, occasionally embellished with gold leaf.

Supporting these fanciful visions will be Nancy's growing collection of digital 'drawings from memory', illustrating her swimming experiences; these subjects are real, for a change. Swimmers slipping gleefully into lakes in January, or swimming in the choppy and muddy waters of the Bristol Channel may be mistaken for illusion, but they are real creatures of the West Country, albeit a hardy breed.

Nancy's latest exhibition will delight her fans and entrance anyone who has not come across her distinctive and hugely enjoyable world view before.

Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House will host 'A West Country Bestiary' exhibition from Monday, July 4th until Saturday, July 30th, 9.30am-4.30pm Monday to Friday, 9.30am-2.30pm Saturday. Admission free.

Steve Knightley to play live in Thorncombe

STEVE KNIGHTLEY is the song writing force behind the phenomenally successful acoustic duo Show of Hands. Ahead of their headline appearance at Sidmouth Folk Week, Steve will perform a solo gig in Thorncombe, on Saturday, July 30th.

As well as a fine singer and musician, Steve's songs 'Country Life' and 'Roots' were both nominated for the coveted Best Original Song category in the BBC Radio2 Folk Awards, which Steve won with his widely acclaimed song aimed at bankers and MPs - 'Arrogance, Ignorance and Greed'.

Show of Hands are a familiar and hugely popular West Country band, and Steve himself is known to many in West Dorset having lived here and taught at Beaminster School. Their annual one-day festival at Abbotsbury Gardens is always sold out, and they have just announced that tickets for their gig at the royal Albert Hall next April are now on sale.

Sponsored by local skin care company Lovegrove Essentials Ltd, Steve Knightley In Concert starts at 8pm on Saturday, July 30th. Gates open at 7 pm and guests can bring a picnic. Tea and cakes will be served during the interval. It is a strictly ticket only event and numbers are limited to 50. Tickets can be bought online at www.lovegroveessentials.com or call 07541 587 668 for more information.

Pimms on the Pitch

AFTER fantastic feed-back from last year's event, Pimms on the Pitch in Offwell is set to return with its popular live music event which is aimed at the whole family.

There will be bouncy castles, face painting, hair feathers and magic to keep the young ones entertained whilst everyone else relaxes with a Pimms or a pint listening to the live music. This year's line-up; Sweet Black Angels, Beautiful Blue Mac, The Culprits, Blimey Oh Riley, WotAPare, Brent Nelson and The Peaceful Hooligan. Also an exciting extra of the Sunshine Samba Samba Band. There will be plenty of food and drink available on the day. Tickets are available from Powershoes Honiton and Offwell Sports and Social Club. Alternatively, you can contact us at our facebook group page Pimms On The Pitch.

Pimms on the Pitch takes place in Offwell on Sunday, July 17th. Search for 'Pimms on the Pitch' on Facebook for more details.

Spellbinding cinematic acoustic guitar at the Marine Theatre

THERE will be a rare - and possibly last chance - opportunity to see James Blackshaw perform live at the Marine Theatre on Wednesday, July 27th before he hangs up his touring boots for the near future. He plays in Lyme Regis en route to the Port Elliot festival, his last scheduled date.

Expect long instrumental tracks, sounds that transport you somewhere else - hypnotic, layered and cinematic. He also sings on a few tracks, but his music is all about the atmosphere and otherworldly space created by one man and a guitar.

James performs celestial and spirit-lifting guitar-led compositions. Meditative in quality, cinematic in scope, his music spirals gracefully across complex patterns, motifs and harmonies. He made his name as a 12-string acoustic guitarist, and his relationship with the instrument is near perfect. With an extensive back catalogue to his name on labels like Young God, Tompkins Square and Important Records, he has developed a unique playing style that takes Takoma school finger-picking into an entirely new place. Swirling overtones, cascading notes and a thousand points of light cascade from his guitar and create ever-shifting textures that bear the influence of contemporary classical composition, post-rock dynamics and invisible soundtracks as much as the American folk guitar tradition.

Despite his transcendent state music he is a grounded and earthly fellow who has been written about with reverence and has played churches, festivals, folk clubs and large concert halls on his many travels in the US, Europe and Japan. These have included extensive touring with the reformed Swans, as well as collaborative performances with Hauschka and Nancy Elizabeth. He performs and records as a member of Current 93 and with Jozef Van Wissem as Brethren of The Free Spirit.

His latest record, Summoning Suns, is his tenth studio album and the first recording to feature his voice. Drawing inspiration from 60s and 70s singer-songwriters, baroque/orchestral pop and folk music, while still sounding contemporary, Summoning Suns is Blackshaw's foray into more traditional forms of songcraft. He sings in a gentle but assured style, occasionally reminiscent of Harry Nilsson, Jim O'Rourke and Elliott Smith, while his words combine personal experiences, neuroses and fantasy through many layers of abstraction, poeticism and dark humour. While the deft fingerpicking is still a prominent part of the sound, the songs are lushly and intricately arranged for drums, bass, piano, violin, flute and pedal steel guitar and features contributions from Simon Scott (Slowdive), Annie Nilsson and Japanese musicians Mori Wakiteiru and Kaoru Noda (with whom he duets in Japanese on one song).

James Blackshaw plays at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Wednesday, July 27th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £10, available from www.marinetheatre.com or by calling 01297 442138.

A weekend of historic vehicles and fun for all the family at Powderham Castle

A DISPLAY of around 1,500 vehicles ranging from steamers to classic motorbikes, cars and commercial vehicles is expected at next month's annual Historic Vehicle Gathering at Powderham Castle, near Exeter, writes David Morgan.

The 43rd Historic Vehicle Gathering takes place on Saturday 9th and Sunday 10th July and is organised by the Crash Box & Classic Car Club of Devon.

This year the theme of Family Fun will see attractions such as a light hearted fun dog show, Westcountry-based groups playing an assortment of different music styles and vehicle exhibitors wearing period dress.

Steam continues to be a popular attraction with show visitors, while the Modern Classics display features examples of affordable makes and models of cars of interest from the early 1980s to the late 1990s which you won't find on the car club stands.

Other attractions include trade, auto jumble and craft stalls, refreshments and delicious food outlets.

Rally chairman Richard Gardiner said: "Whether you have been to the rally before or it will be your first visit, we are confident that you will enjoy the wonderful atmosphere and fun and games on offer. There really is something for everyone."

The Historic Vehicle Gathering will also be raising funds for Sail4Cancer, Exe Access, Devon Freewheelers and Exminster Girl Guides as the main chosen charities. In addition, visitors will also be able to see a free donation paid to a charity or school of their choice through The Giving Machine charity.

For further details about the Historic Vehicle Gathering please visit www.historic-vehicle-gathering.info/ or the 'Crash Box & Classic Car Club' page on Facebook.

Curtain up for Sidmouth's annual Summer Play Festival at the Manor Pavilion Theatre

Award-winning producer Paul Taylor-Mills takes the helm for the fourth time

AWARD-WINNING West End producer Paul Taylor-Mills will be raising the curtain on his hugely popular Summer Play Festival at Sidmouth's Manor Pavilion Theatre on Thursday (June 23rd) with a three-month run of productions featuring works from iconic playwrights including Coward, Wilde and Ayckbourn.

Theatre-goers are in for a real treat this year with an amazing programme of 12 plays in as many weeks, which include such classics as The Ladykillers, Pygmalion, One Man, Two Guv'nors and Private Lives.

The town is bucking a national trend as the Manor Pavilion Theatre – owned and managed by East Devon District Council – is the last theatre in the UK to offer a season of repertory productions that seamlessly change every week from June to September.

Paul takes the helm for the fourth year of his Summer season productions and it's been a phenomenally successful twelve months for this young producer who is taking the theatre world by storm. In April, he collected a trio of Olivier Awards for his musical 'In the Heights' and earlier this year he was appointed as Andrew Lloyd Webber's advisory producer, working with him on the programming of London's St James Theatre.

Paul brings his expertise on an international level to the Sidmouth Play Festival and audiences can expect productions on a par with the West End.

He said: "I'm incredibly proud to be the producer of the last standing weekly play season in the country and I'm overwhelmed and touched by the support that we get from our audiences.

"Without them we really wouldn't be able to present such quality entertainment at one of the most special theatre's in the country."

Years ago, many theatres across the country would have a weekly rep season, such as Sidmouth's, as young actors would learn their trade by finishing one production and starting an entirely new one in quick succession.

The 277-seater Manor Pavilion Theatre will be a hive of activity for twelve weeks from opening night on June 23. As each play finishes, it's all hands on deck as cast, crew, director and producer arrange the change-over for the next set, props and lights for the new production opening the following night. The tight schedule also means that the cast of around 30 actors go on stage for their evening performances and then rehearse and learn lines for the next play during the day time.

The 2016 season will feature: My Cousin Rachel, by Daphne Du Maurier from July 7th – 13th; Bedroom Farce, by Alan Ayckbourn from July 14th – 20th; Pygmalion by George Bernard Shaw from July 21st – 27th; The Ladykillers, by Graham Linehan July 28th, 29th & August 6th – 10th; Stone Cold Murder, by James Cawood from August 11th – 17th; Pools Paradise, by Philip King from August 18 – 24; An Ideal Husband, by Oscar Wilde from August 25th – 31st; Not Now Darling, by Ray Cooney from September 1st – 7th; Flare Path, by Terrence Rattigan from September 8th – 14th; and Private Lives, by Noel Coward from September 15th – 23rd.

Tickets for the Festival season went on sale last month and, according to Theatre Manager Graham Whitlock they're "selling though the roof!"

Graham, who has managed the Manor Pavilion Theatre for more than ten years, said: "Some theatre goers have bought season tickets to see all 12 plays this year because they know that they are seeing the very best cast, sets and production standards, which normally they would have to travel to London for.

"It's wonderful to see the Manor Pavilion Theatre thriving and our ticket sales for all our productions have doubled over the last five years. This is down to the hard work of the staff and the conviction that East Devon District Council has by investing in this wonderful theatre at a time when most councils would cut back this area of work."

He added: "As we have seen such success at the theatre, we have been able to keep the ticket prices for this year's Festival at the same cost as last year. Also for the first time in many years, we have frozen our hire fees for our local organisations as we value our regulars who support us."

Ticket prices start at just £14, with seats for under-16s costing £8. Group discounts are available along with great value full and half season tickets. To book, call the theatre Box Office on 01395 514413. For further information about productions at the theatre, visit the Manor Pavilion Theatre website at www.manorpavilion.com

Hard-rocking tribute to legendary Motörhead

MOTORKILL – the UK's top Motörhead tribute – bring their awesome headbanger live show to Winstons in Seaton on Saturday, July 23rd for one night only.

Having plied their trade for several years, playing all the big festivals in the UK and Europe, they come to the South West paying homage to the late, great Lemmy.

As the band themselves say: "With the sad loss of Lemmy earlier this year, we aim to remind people just what a giant of a man he was by playing a greatest hits set with a smattering of lesser played tracks."

Winston's manager, Chris Oakes, said: "This is a big event for us and for any true rock fan the chance to hear 'Ace Of Spades' and other classic tracks recreated live is one gig not to be missed."

Tickets are £10 in advance or £13 on the night, and are available from Winstons in Seaton, Beer Village Stores and Ax Music in Axminster. The show takes place on Saturday, July 23rd at 9pm.

SaraBeth brings Texan tones to Exeter Cavern

SAVVY, fun, creative, adventurous, determined and delightfully unexpected are a good start, but adjectives begin to run out well before facets of SaraBeth's artistry do. A force-of-nature Texan who is already building a meaningful presence as a singer, songwriter and entertainer, she is a virtual lock to take the next step – if only because she hasn't missed one yet.

Earning fans one show at a time, landing considerable regional media exposure, scoring three nationally charted singles, developing a base in her native Texas, expanding it nationally and even internationally with successful UK tours in 2014 and 2015, SaraBeth has made astounding strides in a very short time. And the release of her self-titled EP and aggressive first single 'I'm Sick Of It' will surely carry her even further.

SaraBeth plays at the Cavern in Exeter on Sunday, August 7th. For more details and tickets, costing £11, visit www.exetercavern.com. For more information on SaraBeth, visit www.sarabethmusic.com

THE SHOW GOES ON!

A century of entertaining Yeovil

Yeovil knows how to enjoy itself and has been making sure that it is well entertained for at least the last 100 years. For 40 of those, the Johnson Hall/Octagon Theatre has been the centre for everything from wrestling to opera.

On July 10th, the Octagon presents an unprecedented show combining old films, live music and the memories of local people and well-known performers.

The show is the result of a partnership between the Octagon, Yeovil Amateur Operatic Society and media charity Windrose Rural Media Trust and Amanda Boyd. With the support of the Heritage Lottery Fund, they have undertaken a project to create an archive of Yeovil entertainment; delving into the past and also looking to the future.

Old films of Operatic Society performances, pantomimes, Yeovil Town Band competitions and scout gang shows have been discovered, along with 1960s and 70s television reports about Yeovil's need for an entertainment centre. A great many local people appear.

Windrose, Yeovil Operatic Society and Octagon personnel have filmed new interviews recording the memories both of major stars who have often appeared in Yeovil and of local people who have long been taking to the Yeovil stage or have had vital roles behind the scenes.

These include Sarah Parish, who began her acting career in Yeovil, Bonny Sartin of the Yetties, folk singer Maddy Prior and wrestler Klondyke Kate. Stalwarts of Yeovil Town Band, the Salvation Army Choir and Yeovil Art Group also appear on screen with memories of past trials and triumphs. David Lee, promoter of pantomimes at the Octagon for many years lets us know how to get Yeovil laughing.

Woven into on-screen riches will be live performances by the Operatic Society and students of Westfield Academy. The Operatic Society recalls its first performance of over a century ago with an excerpt from "Iolanthe" and adds a number from "My Fair Lady". The students will perform a Somerset folk song from Cecil Sharp's collection.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

DRYASABONE SERVICES DRY CARPET CLEANERS "FORGET WET" NO MESS! NO FUSS! NO WATER!

Dryasabone carpet cleaners are a 21st century forward thinking family owned local established company that relies on excellent customer service and satisfaction for repeat business and recommendations. We guarantee to provide a sales gimmick free and reliable service with confirmed appointment times at a time convenient for you the customer, not us.

Our expertise lies in dry/low moisture carpet cleaning, which means no-one is going to come along and soak your carpets with dirty water and steam up your windows for the rest of the day.

We specialise in the 'HOST* Dry Extraction Method' which ensures your carpets are clean, dry and looking their best and back in use immediately. 'FORGET WET'

This method of cleaning has been developed over more than 50 years, and is used in over 60 countries and by some of the worlds largest organisations.

The price we quote is the full and final price you pay. No other gimmicks will be offered our reputation is our main selling point and will not be compromised.

The Advantages.

- Uses safe natural bio-degradable non-toxic products
- Safe for children and pets
- No damp dog smells
- Is fully endorsed by major carpet retailers
- No steamy windows
- No sitting in your kitchen for hours waiting for carpets to dry
- No down time for hotels and guest houses
- Your rooms are back in use immediately

Right on Q – new Audi Q2 compact SUV heads for the UK

HIGH definition design meets highly intelligent technology in the new Audi Q2, the Vorsprung durch Technik brand's first crossover which will join the currently three-strong Audi Q range later this summer priced from £20,230 OTR. Head of Audi Design Marc Lichte and his team have taken the compact SUV in a bold new styling direction intended to appeal to a younger audience, and have combined this with a quality of finish and a portfolio of connectivity, infotainment and assistance systems that will be instantly familiar from the larger Audi models.

"In the Audi Q2 we have developed a distinctively geometric form language with model-specific design characteristics. The car exhibits an independent character within the Q family," says Lichte.

Rugged look

The result is a powerful SUV that shows a lot of vertices and edges. At the front, a strong image is created by the high-mounted Singleframe grille in octagonal design as well as the large air inlets. Especially eye-catching is the low roof that descends and merges into the C-pillars with colour offset blades. The rear body terminates in a dynamic way with a long roof spoiler and a diffuser that has an underbody-protection look.

In profile, the high shoulder line is especially eye-catching as are the concave flanks in the door area. The latter emphasise the wheel housings and thereby the quattro character of the compact SUV. The vehicle measures 1.51 metres tall and 1.79 metres wide. The overhangs are short with a vehicle length of 4.19 metres and a wheelbase of 2.60 metres.

Highly connected

The Q2 is equipped with a standard MMI screen that is positioned high on the instrument panel. The infotainment system can be operated by a rotary/push-button control and two buttons on the centre tunnel. When MMI navigation plus with MMI touch is ordered, the user also gets a touchpad on the central control element. In addition, the system can be conveniently controlled by natural language operation and the integrated MMI search. Furthermore, customers can use MMI touch to query the online services of Audi connect. The flat rate data plan required for this is included thanks to the SIM card (embedded SIM) that is permanently installed in the car. It also permits roaming in most European countries. Mobile phones with iOS and Android operating systems are integrated into the car via the standard Audi smartphone interface. The free Audi MMI connect app enables online media streaming and transfer of a calendar from a smartphone to the MMI. The app for iOS operating systems also has the myAudi destinations function. It makes it possible to send the data of a desired navigation destination from any app to the MMI navigation plus system. The system then uses it for navigation.

Simply functional

The Q2 fulfils the fundamental expectations of an SUV with a high entry, good visibility and a large luggage compartment (405 to 1,050 litres of capacity), yet the driver's seat position is low in relation to the steering wheel as in an Audi saloon. Optional practical solutions are available such as a power tailgate and a three-way split rear bench backrest with cargo through-loading.

Individual customisation

The Audi Q2 is as individual as its drivers – inside and out. Many equipment packages, exterior colours and expressive colours for interior trim and seat upholstery allow plenty of creative space for personal configuration.

One option is the LED lighting package advanced, in which the interior is staged in a particularly attractive way with illuminated trim elements. Newly designed 16-inch alloy wheels are fitted as standard, and can be optionally increased to 19 inches upon request.

Three generously equipped specification levels

Three specification levels are available from launch on the new Q2, with entry-level SE versions benefitting from a raft of features as standard. Among them is the Audi smartphone interface, which supports Apple CarPlay and Android Auto displayed via the MMI screen once a phone is plugged in via USB. A Bluetooth interface is also standard, as is the MMI radio plus with MMI controller and heated, electrically adjustable exterior mirrors. Inlays can be chosen in either white or orange.

For an additional £1,550, Sport models gain 17-inch alloy wheels (up from 16 inches on SE), Audi drive select with five operational modes, cruise control, light and rain sensors and sport seats upholstered in cloth. SD-card based MMI navigation is displayed via the seven-inch central screen and includes a three-month trial unlocking the Audi connect portfolio. Red or yellow inlays can be selected for the interior, while bumpers can be specified in Manhattan grey or matching body colour depending on preference.

Stand-out features on S line models – priced at £2,250 above Sport – include the hallmark front, side and rear styling enhancements, 18-inch alloy wheels, LED headlamps with LED rear lights and dynamic sweeping rear indicators.

LED interior lighting, inlays finished in brushed aluminium and front sport seats upholstered in cloth/leather upholstery with S embossing on the backrests. A multi-function perforated leather steering wheel is also standard, featuring grey contrasting stitching and S line badging.

An exclusive Q2 design feature is the contrasting blade on the C-pillars. On SE it is finished in Manhattan grey, in Ice silver on Sport and matt Titanium grey for S line models. All of these colours are optionally interchangeable and Ibis white is also separately available.

New Volkswagen Tiguan is cool, calm and connected

THE need to integrate today's consumer technologies such as smartphones seamlessly into our homes, offices and cars is becoming essential for many. Recognising this trend, when designing the new Tiguan, Volkswagen engineers have ensured the car is packed with state-of-the-art features that support connectivity and functionality more easily than ever.

The new Tiguan's cool, calm, connected nature enables its driver and passengers to stay in touch while on the move. Whether it's getting the latest traffic information, streaming some music or dictating a text hands-free the latest Volkswagen SUV is equipped for the task.

All new Tiguans offer, as a minimum, Volkswagen's impressive Composition Media system. This includes an eight-inch colour touch-screen, DAB digital radio receiver, CD player, USB connection and the simultaneous pairing, via Bluetooth, of two compatible mobile phone devices.

Once a smartphone is paired with the Tiguan the driver or passenger can make and receive phone calls via the car's built-in microphone and infotainment speakers. When the car is stationary the driver or passenger can even read and reply to SMS text messages using the touch-screen display, if they have an Android smartphone.

Internet on the move

Of course mobile phones now do so much more than merely text or call contacts. This is where Volkswagen's Car-Net comes in. Car-Net refers to in-car internet connectivity and it brings the best functions of a smartphone – entertainment and convenience – into the Tiguan, simply and securely.

A range of services are available, and for access to the full functionality all the driver needs to do is set up an account at volkswagen-car-net.com and download the Car-Net app to their smartphone.

Car-Net kicks off with the App-Connect system. Available on entry-level S trim, and standard on all other trims, App-Connect allows the display screen of a smartphone to be 'mirrored' on the Tiguan's Composition Media touch-screen by connecting the phone via a USB cable. This is compatible with smartphones that run Apple, Google and Android operating systems, meaning the function is available to almost every smartphone user.

Crucially, the Tiguan also allows the use of certified apps on its infotainment touch-screen. And if the app supports voice control then that will work in the Tiguan too! With safety in mind, only certain apps can be used while the Tiguan's wheels are in motion.

One such app is MirrorLink's Cam Connect. This allows the infotainment display to be connected to a GoPro camera, which can be mounted in the vehicle or in a trailer that's being towed by the Tiguan. This is useful if you have a dog in the rear of the vehicle, or if you're towing a horse box and you want to check on your animal without having to pull over.

In the fast-moving world of digital development, the list of apps that are accessible while on the move is growing all the time. Apple's CarPlay supports Spotify; the music streaming service, Stitcher, which offers a variety of radio shows and podcasts; and the video calling app Skype. Android Auto works with a variety of apps, including instant messengers WhatsApp and Kik, and Google Hangouts too. These apps are navigated using the car's steering wheel controls.

Volkswagen's 'Guide and Inform' system is the next step in truly bringing the online world into the new Tiguan. It operates via Volkswagen's familiar Discover Navigation system and opens up access to a wide range of useful information, including traffic conditions, fuel location and pricing, parking space availability, the weather at the destination and customisable news feeds. A press of the Point of Interest button in the navigation menu provides a wide variety of options to find the precise information required. For example, a list of petrol stations can be sorted by the distance from the Tiguan or even by the price of the fuel.

Alternatively, the driver can search for points of interest on the volkswagen-car-net.com website while at home or at work. The 'Destination Import' function then allows them to send the information to the Tiguan's navigation system. Complete routes can be sent to the car so the driver simply gets in, downloads the journey and starts driving.

Once under way, the Tiguan will know if traffic is building up along the route and will re-calculate the journey to find the fastest option. The Tiguan's live traffic information is based on the Traffic Message Channel, which supplies continuously updated traffic data throughout Europe. Alternative routes are automatically chosen and the corresponding estimated time of arrival is updated accordingly.

All Car-Net 'Guide and Inform' services are standard equipment on trims from SE Navigation and above, and are optional on the Tiguan S. A three-year subscription to the 'Guide and Inform' service is included, so the maps are constantly updated, too.

Tiguan's active information

The most comprehensive mobile connectivity available in new Tiguan is Car-Net 'Guide and Inform Plus'. Optional on S, SE Navigation, SEL and R-Line trims, 'Guide and Inform Plus' adds voice activation technology to the already thorough 'Guide and Inform' offering. It brings Google Earth™ into the car, while Google Street View™ can also be displayed on the colour touch-screen.

A crucial feature of Car-Net is the way in which the Car-Net app acts as an e-Remote for the new Tiguan. Before the driver gets into the car, he or she can use the Car-Net e-Remote to pre-set the air conditioning so the cabin is at their preferred temperature. The e-Remote also displays the vehicle's mileage, last parking position and will even inform the driver if the headlights are on or not.

The connectivity of the new Tiguan makes it one of the most advanced cars in its class, but it's far from a 'one trick' SUV. Another technological highlight is the Active Info Display: a 12.3-inch high resolution TFT display screen located in the instrument binnacle. It offers a digital speedo and tachometer, and the display can be customised to show almost any of the car's other parameters. Particularly useful is the wide-screen navigation display, which replicates the information on the TFT display in the centre console. Active Info Display is available on trims from SE and up, and is standard on the SEL and R-Line models.

Another key feature is the Head-up Display that projects driving information, including current speed and the speed limit, onto a retractable screen within the driver's field of vision. This fighter jet-inspired technology is an option on Tiguans from SE and above.

Brimming with technology, the new Volkswagen Tiguan is on sale now. For full details, together with brochures and pricing and to use Volkswagen's online configurator, please visit www.volkswagen.co.uk.

Make sure your Volkswagen is ready for summer with a health check

EVEN if the sun isn't shining quite as brightly as we'd hoped or indeed, at all, many of us are still using our Volkswagen's air conditioning system to keep cool now that 'summer' is here. To ensure your car's system is running efficiently, and smelling its sweetest, Volkswagen is including an air conditioning check and disinfect in its new Summer Health Check offer.

If moisture builds up in a car's ventilation system it can lead to the growth of bacteria which may mean the system doesn't smell as fresh as it might. When Volkswagen's trained technicians carry out a Summer Health Check, available until 30 September across the brand's UK Retailer network, they disinfect the air conditioning system, which has the added benefit of helping to optimise airflow.

The Summer Health Check involves a 34-point express visual review to flag up any maintenance concerns, while the service also includes a clean and vacuum of the vehicle before it is handed back. As well as enjoying a more fragrant summer on the road, the Volkswagen driver will also enjoy the peace of mind that comes from having their car checked by their local Volkswagen Retailer.

Meanwhile, a wide variety of genuine accessories and merchandise can further equip Volkswagen cars for outings during the summer months*. For instance the Cool and Thermos Box is perfect for keeping picnic food at the right temperature, powered as it is via the vehicle's 12-volt supply. It can be secured safely, too, using a tailor-made three-point harness.

Volkswagen also offers an accessory picnic blanket with 'Bull!' heritage Volkswagen camper van branding for those al fresco dining expeditions. And there's an extensive selection of Volkswagen roof boxes available, too, with aerodynamically-optimised designs to help minimise wind noise. Available in 340-litre or 460-litre sizes, there's a roof box to match the required luggage capacity of almost any summer holiday family.

For full details of the new Summer Health Check offer please visit <http://www.volkswagen.co.uk/owners/summer-health-check> or, to locate your nearest Volkswagen Retailer, log on to <http://www.volkswagen.co.uk/find-a-retailer> and get set for a great summer – whatever the weather.

FIAT 500 Riva – a collaboration between two Italian icons

THE 1957 FIAT 500 was not only the cornerstone of a mobilised Italy, allowing millions of people to experience the personal freedom of car ownership, it also symbolised the rebirth of the nation, becoming inextricably linked to the Dolce Vita years during which the country rediscovered its sense of style, vitality and fun. During the same time, another Italian icon also rose to prominence – Aquarama, the Riva speedboat. Elegant and exquisitely executed, the Aquarama was an authentic status symbol which helped Riva on its way to becoming one of the world's most respected premium boat builders.

Almost 60 years later, the two symbols of Italian style and elegance finally converge in the form of the FIAT 500 Riva. Aimed at motorists seeking the same exclusivity of Aquariva Super yacht – the current Riva icon – but in an accessible, everyday package, the FIAT 500 Riva is finished in "Sera Blue", an exclusive colour for this limited edition model and one of the most popular for the Aquariva Super, successor to the legendary Aquarama.

The convertible version also gets a new blue soft top, created exclusively for this version, while the hatchback gets a panoramic glass roof as standard, but what really sets the FIAT 500 Riva apart is the detailing: Externally, in addition to the exclusive colour, the mirror caps have a chrome finish, as do the handles and the bonnet trim. A double aquamarine line runs along the belt line, enhancing the soft profile of the 500 and recalling the beautiful line of a yacht, while brand new 16-inch, 20-spoke alloy wheels, with a special blue finish, have been created especially for the FIAT 500 Riva. Finally, the logo of the nautical legend is placed on the boot lid, the wheel arch and the wooden insert of the side moulding.

Inside, the dashboard is finished in hand-painted mahogany with maple inlay work, offering the occupants the luxurious warmth of life on-board, as emphasised by the prominent Riva logo. An innovative engineering process was implemented to make the dashboard, merging state of the art materials technologies with natural wood and classic craftsmanship: The wood is applied onto an ultralight carbon shell to ensure stability, flexibility and perfect strength over the lifetime of the vehicle. The maple inlays are inserted by hand, making each creation truly unique.

The door sills and gear knob are also carved from a solid piece of mahogany, while the seats are trimmed in an exclusive ivory leather created by Poltrona Frau, in colours and materials reminiscent of the exclusive ambience of Aquariva Super. Even the floor mats are especially created with ivory hems and contrasting "Sera Blue" stitching, as is the boot mat that also features a wood insert with Riva lettering.

In terms of safety equipment, the FIAT 500 Riva is equipped with seven airbags, ABS with EBD (Electronic Brake Distribution), ESC (Electronic Stability Control), ASR (Anti Slip Regulation) Hill Holder and HBA (Hydraulic Brake Assistance) that helps with emergency braking.

Luxury equipment includes automatic climate control, front fog lights, rear parking sensors, LED DRLs and a seven-inch TFT instrument cluster with aquamarine background and Riva logo. In addition, the dashboard incorporates as standard FIAT's latest seven-inch HD Uconnect™ LIVE infotainment system, featuring a high-definition display and a wide range of functions including DAB digital radio, Uconnect™ LIVE services, Bluetooth voice calls, music streaming and voice recognition. The system can be upgraded with 3D satellite navigation as an option.

The new FIAT 500 Riva will be available in the UK from the end of August with the 1.2 69hp, TwinAir 85hp and TwinAir 105hp engine options. The FIAT 500 range starts at £11,050 OTR while the UK pricing for FIAT 500 Riva range will be announced closer to its launch date later in the summer.

Customers can visit www.fiat.co.uk for more information on the FIAT UK range while images and additional information is available to the media on www.FIATpress.co.uk

New Citroën C3 revealed: The new Citroën Offensive

TODAY sees the global reveal of the New Citroën C3 – a fresh, bold and colourful B-segment, 5-door supermini that delivers new levels of advanced comfort and personality to the sector.

Citroën is renewing its best-selling C3 model, which has already sold more than 3.6 million examples since it was originally launched in 2002. New Citroën C3 is set to shake-up the market with its highly customisable character and the very latest automotive technologies, including a world premiere for ConnectedCAM Citroën™, an on-board HD camera that allows drivers to share their road-trip photos and videos directly with friends and family.

The New Citroën C3 is everything you would expect a modern Citroën to be – colourful, stylish, brimming with new technologies, supremely comfortable and with a bold, fun-loving personality.

The New C3 embodies all the core values of Citroën;

OPTIMISTIC: New C3 combines a characteristically Citroën front-end, with soft lines, flowing curves and striking colour schemes to deliver a powerful and energetic look.

Highly customisable, New C3 is audacious and full of personality by design, to ensure each owner can create a bespoke look that suits their individual style.

The exterior has a two-tone paint option, with a choice of three roof colours and complimentary touches of colour around the car (fog lights, door mirrors, rear quarter panels and on the Airbump® panels). Inside, customers have a choice of four different interiors that all deliver a spacious, yet intimate feel, thanks to the shape of the seats and an uncluttered dashboard.

HUMAN: New C3 is focused on the well-being of everyone on-board.

The Citroën Advanced Comfort® programme has influenced the creation of New C3. Comfortable seats, a panoramic glass sunroof that fills the cabin with light, colours and fabrics inspired by travel and home interior design, a 7-inch touchscreen that groups together all of the key vehicle functions and a keyless entry and start system, all combine to emphasise a feeling of reassurance, comfort and calm.

SMART: New C3 introduces ConnectedCAM Citroën™, which is a world premiere for the brand.

ConnectedCAM Citroën™ uses a fully integrated camera, located behind the rear view mirror, to capture images and video that can instantly be shared on social media channels, or saved as evidence in the event of an accident. The New Citroën C3 now offers even more options that improve the driving experience, with an advanced driver assistance system including voice controlled 3D navigation, a reversing camera, lane departure warning and blind-spot monitoring. Finally, the efficient, high-performance powertrain options continue the technological theme with PureTech petrol and BlueHDi Diesel engines, and the latest generation EAT6 fully automatic gearbox available as part of the range.

Citroën CEO, Linda Jackson, said; "The New C3 has all the Citroën values and all the qualities to give the brand new impetus, which is especially important as the previous model accounted for almost one fifth sales in Europe. A comfortable car with real personality, it is set to appeal to new customers looking for a modern car with character."

Xavier Peugeot, Citroën Product Director, added; "With its unique body style, personalised features and connectivity, New C3 is a bold, fresh, modern car. It illustrates the ongoing Citroën product offensive."

Mettam clinches cruiser win with last race victory

JUNE has seen a full programme of racing at Axe Yacht Club. Eight boats took part in the cruiser passage race to Dartmouth at the start of the month.

Mark Jenkins led from the start on Roobarb closely followed by David Haywood on Canna. By 6pm they were within two miles of the finish but could not reach the finishing line due to a very light wind and strong east flowing tide. Of the eight starters, two retired and six reported positions at 4pm, which was taken as the finish of the race, with Roobarb

Hurst gets a taste of Wimbledon

SEATON Tennis Club's Emma Hurst qualified for the recent Wimbledon British Wildcard play-offs on at the All England Lawn Tennis Club.

Despite losing to Laura Deigman 6-3 6-4 it was a great achievement for Emma to reach a draw in the top 16 British ladies competing on grass for a place in the qualifications.

Emma thanked the Seaton club members for their ongoing support and said: "Obviously I was really disappointed to lose my match, but was pleased with how I played, and it just came down for a few breaks in serve."

"It was an amazing opportunity to play on the grass courts at Wimbledon - something I have been aiming towards all year at Bath University."

Juniors look to emulate Emma

CALEB Sinclair came up against tough opposition with Harry Ockenden in the this year's final of the club's 'Road to Wimbledon' event.

Caleb had two terrific wins to make the final but succumbed to Harry's greater consistency losing 6-1.

But the match of the competition was the 7-6 first round battle between Seb Hallett and Ollie Parry-Leyshon. Ollie finally winning an epic tie break. Seb then went on to win the consolation tournament beating Harry Lister 6-4 in the Final.

The girls event was more straightforward with Amelia Smith being far too strong for her opponents and winning her matches in style. Darcie Morton finished as runner-up.

The club runs a competition every year, with this prestigious national event which features around 600 club competitions, and has a long and proud history.

STC's Belinda Bawden said: "Previous Seaton Juniors Bella Brown and Emma Hurst (see above) have actually made it all the way to the National Finals and played at the world famous All England Club."

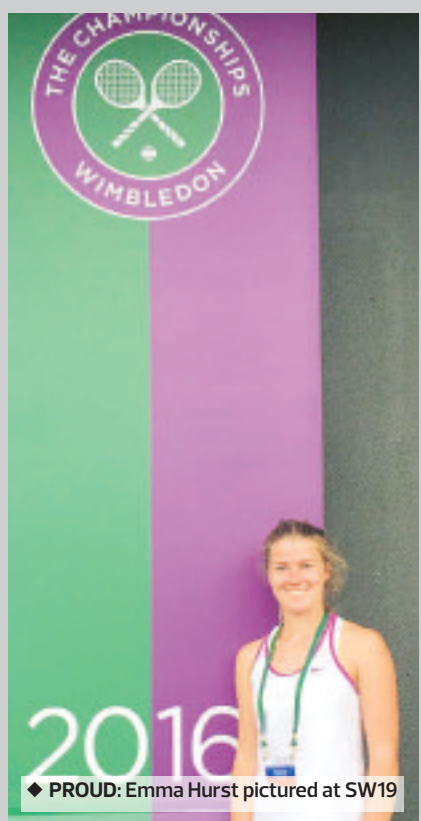

"However, the real success of the competition is engaging juniors who usually do not enter competitions, have coaching and normally just play tennis for fun."

"These juniors mixed in with those who are starting to compete regularly which proves that they are definitely good enough to give these competitions a go."

"Quite a few of the juniors don't get to play much outside of school and the local club."

"It's particularly satisfying to see these players get a taste of competition. Harry and Amelia will go on to the County Finals later this month."

Next Event - Mini Red, Orange, Green and Yellow Ball Junior Club Competition on Saturday, July 9th.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter

JAKE Smith travelled to Arco near Lake Garda in Italy to represent Team GB U20s in the EUROPEAN MOUNTAIN RUNNING CHAMPIONSHIPS this weekend.

Just before the race began, the heavens opened making the course, which wound its way up the mountain in Arco towards the medieval castle at the top, even more treacherous.

After the first shorter loop, Jake was around 25th but began to work his way through on the longer loop eventually finishing 21st out of 41 runners, with the Team GB junior boys finishing just outside of the medals in 4th place.

The LAIRIG GHRU is a high level pass in the Cairngorm mountain range with a unique character of wild and exposed terrain. Clare Hansford loves this area and when she heard of a marathon through this spectacular pass she just knew she'd have to do it as a memorial to her father with whom she enjoyed many family holidays in the area.

It was a very hard course but eventually Clare arrived at the final river crossing, with the luxury of a bridge over the river Spey and in to Aviemore high street where runners dodged bemused shoppers. Clare crossed with a final burst in 4:38, 5th lady and 55th overall.

Ten AVR's entered this year's CHARMOUTH CHALLENGE, England's most southerly fell race that includes an ascent of Golden Cap.

The race was won by Chris McMillan of Weston AC in 53:16.

First AVR back was Terry Emmett 4th, 57:39; Tim Lenton was close behind 6th, 58:47 and Justin Sloman 34th, 1:08:42.

Ian Clements and Alan Morbey were neck and neck on the last steep ascent to the finish line with Ian just edging it 83rd, 1:19:34 and Alan 84th 1:20:00. Roger Bramley posted 99th, 1:23:20; Anders Larson 132nd, 1:28:49; John Larcombe 135th, 1:29:17; Nick Adams 169th, 1:39:29 and Robert Kerr 177th, 1:44:42.

There were 194 finishers. And as always the local firefighters were on hand for a very welcome hose down of the finishers!

HONITON RC with Judy Davey

SIX members of Honiton Running Club made the short trip last Saturday to Charmouth for the annual running of the CHARMOUTH CHALLENGE.

This is a fell race over eight miles and takes the runners up the steep ascent of Stonebarrow Lane before being faced with a further climb to the top of Golden Cap, the highest point on the South Coast.

Prior to the start there had been heavy showers but just before race start the sun came out and runners were faced with warm conditions.

First back for Honiton was Adam Hennessey who finished the race in 28th place in a time of 1:06:34. Next back in 35th was Findlay Fuller in 1:08:51.

Rod Inglis finished in 40th place in 1:09:59. Howard Bidmead was 60th in 1:14:05.

Kathy Tompkins, running her first CC, finished 134th in 1:27:24 and was followed by James Tompkins in 1:34:41.

The race was won by Chris McMillan from Weston AC in 53m 16s

Keeping it in the family George Tompkins won the two-mile junior run.

HONITON with John Pawley

Mixed: On Tuesday the Annual Mixed Invitational allowed members to invite guests from far and wide to test themselves on Honiton's tricky greens and also combat the fog and rain.

Ron Graham and his partner Penny Weston, from Looe GC came out on top with 41 points and won the Salver - they also had the only two of the afternoon, winning 32 balls.

Trying to win this competition for a third time, but this time finishing in second place, were Alan Seager & Glenda Board (Axe Cliff) with 37 on count-back from Bill Eaton & Di Parsons (Crediton) with Peter Clarke & Angela Coles (Sidmouth) next with 35.

Ladies: The competition this week was for the Bradshaw Bogey, a trophy presented by Henrietta Bradshaw in 1996.

At each hole, a birdie or better is scored as +1, a par is scored as zero and a bogey, or worse, scores -1.

The damp conditions, with a gusty wind and the mist, coupled with the unusual scoring format gave the 24 ladies taking part a true challenge.

The winner was Ann Trayling with +1 followed by Chris Pearce on level from Lady Captain Jane Watts on count-back.

Seniors: Damp and cloudy conditions early on Friday improved a little trying for the 64 seniors taking part in a 3BBB Bowmaker Competition - a team of three, with one player scoring on holes 1-6, two players on holes 7-12 and all three 13-18.

Early scores were disappointingly low but eventual winners turned out to be David Scott, Mike Kent & Bill Phillips with 70 points, followed by Mike Watts, Kit Barker & Tom Stanton with 68.

Peter Clarke, Max Pipe & Steve Blundell were third on 64 on count-back from Ron Graham, John Frith & Sydney Martin.

There were four 2s: Derek Herrington on the 2nd David Lee on the 10th with Dave Lavender and Mike Kent on the 12th - each winning 10 balls.

There were two friendly matches for the Seniors this week. On Monday they entertained Crediton at home and won 3½-2½ followed this on Thursday with a match at Taunton & Pickering which the home team won 5-1.

CRICKET ST THOMAS

with Bert Robinson
FORTY five Senior golfers entered the three-man "waltz" competition last Monday where conditions made life difficult with the clingy light rough.

Only one of the 15 teams managed to score better than the par 72 benchmark.

Result: 1st Bob Hollingsworth; Bob Rees & Tony Johnson 75 points, 2nd John Bonny; Jerry Stephens & Andy Beale 70, 3rd Richard Forster; Barrie Heath & Mike Hone 69.

Meanwhile, 15 pairs entered the Canadian Greensomes Trophy competition on Wednesday in conditions so bad that seven teams abandoned the course.

The wet blustery and cold conditions hindered the golfers to such an extent that only one pair scored below par.

Bob Barrow & Nobby Holder were leading in the clubhouse with a creditable net 71 for some time. This proved to be a third place finish and they were overtaken, first by Danny Dowell & Clive Fisk by a mere 0.25 of a shot, and then by Stuart Pope & Terry Rutherford.

Result: 1st Stuart Pope & Terry Rutherford 67.13, 2nd Danny Dowell & Clive Fisk 70.75, 3rd Bob Barrow & Nobby Holder 71.00.

The Seniors finished their week on Friday with the July Medal qualifier.

Once again, scoring proved to be difficult with the light rough claiming many balls.

On this occasion, no player in either Division managed a par score, the best being a round of two over par by Terry Rutherford who claimed first place in Division One.

Some poor scores in Division Two indicated that the higher handicapped players could not handle the light rough, and the best score was made by Nick Clarke with a seven over par round of 77.

Result - Division One: 1st Terry Rutherford (72), 2nd Roger Stone (75), 3rd Alan Chance (76). Division Two - 1st Nick Clarke (77), 2nd Barrie Singleton (78), 3rd Stuart Pope (79).

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE Men's Section played their GEES BOWL match with a high standard of golf as seven players returned cards with below par scores.

Chris Glover scored a net 63 take 1st place, Jin Hong came in 2nd with 66 and Andrew Hellier was 3rd with 67. Dave Morgan, Alan Kenworthy, Simon Sweetland and, Paul Clode all carded 2s. The Ladies section played a friendly 4 ball Better Ball match-play match at Cricket St Thomas where Pauline Willis & Jo Donmall were the only winning Axe Cliff pairing.

Helen Kenworthy played very well at the County Silver Championships where she won her Handicap Division. She was 6th overall from the 68 entrants from all over Devon.

The Ladies' scheduled Flag Competition was postponed due to bad weather.

The Seniors section held their THREE CLUB SHIELD competition, stableford format, where 1st place was won by Phil Christmas with 33 points.

In 2nd was A Bishop with 32 and 3rd, on countback, went to Tony Strong with 31 while John Mant came 4th, also with 31.

Keech please to make first cut
SOPHIE Keech recently played in her third professional tournament this season on the LET Access tour at Borås Golf Club which is located in the south west of Sweden just outside Gothenburg.

Amongst a field of 126 Professional and Amateurs taking part from countries around the World, Sophie was representing Parkstone Golf Club and one of just ten competing from England.

On the first day, with almost perfect weather conditions, Sophie shot two birdies and a double on the 18th and finished two over placing her tied 44th.

Her round included a tremendous 30ft for birdie putt on the second hole.

The second day brought heavy showers and windy conditions, Sophie finished three over for the round, tied 43rd which was enough to make the cut, her first since turning professional.

The final day, with only four English players left in, Sophie had an early start in chilly and very windy conditions.

She battled hard in these testing conditions and shot four over, where she finished in a very respectable 37th overall.

HONITON with Julie Grant

THE Club's schedule was affected by the poor weather, so only the Over 60 mens C team managed to play two games – winning 40-19 against UFFCULME and losing 28-38 to OTTERY ST MARY. Top rink both times were Wally Heard, Ken Clarke & Ken Large winning 21-7 and 16-13 respectively.

Away at BOVEY TRACEY, Honiton won their mixed friendly 89-61, top rink Yvonne Williams, David Lindley, Mike Critchley & Jimmy Smith 23-7.

Away at SEATON in the East of Exe League Honiton lost 47-57 but won on two rinks, the best being Carole Pidgeon, June Lee, Barrie Singleton & Gerry Stafrace 19-16.

Sue Evans played for the Devon team which won against Cornwall in the Walker Cup, but the Devon team of six rinks lost to Worcestershire in the Johns Trophy.

OTTERY ST MARY with Mike Smith

IN the EEML Ottery had a 72-60 home victory over CULLOMPTON winning by 3 rinks to 1, Dot Luff, Chris Hawke, Gail Hawke and skip Mike Smith triumphed 24-7.

The same day the Ottery Ladies had a good 46-27 win at HEAVITREE in the LOFTL, winning on both rinks, with Eileen Martin, Val Kille & skip Margaret Bright securing a 24-12 victory.

They continued their winning ways with a 43-31 victory away at EXONIA, this time sharing the rinks but ensuring the win with a 28-10 success by Moyra Griffin, Sharon Kenny & skip Gail Hawke.

In the men's Over 60s League the A team recorded only their second win of the season beating HONITON C 38-28, Tony Luff, John Pethick & skip Terry House enjoying a fine 25-12 win.

The B team also continued their winning ways with a maximum eight point haul at MADEIRA C – Tony Bushell, Norman Lawrence & skip Ray Luscombe having the best rink 18-15. In the LNBTTL Ottery Ladies won on both rinks at home to FENITON, taking the match 39-27.

The men proved less successful against FENITON in the County Trophy, losing 3 rinks to 1 and 61-91 overall – Richard Chapple, Clive Martin, Ray Luscombe & skip Terry House being the sole Ottery winning rink 20-17.

The week ended with a trip to LYME REGIS, with the home team winning 61-84, though the rinks were shared 2-2, Carol Keating, Eric Richardson, Peter Jones & skip Shirley Fewtrell being the best Ottery rink 20-16.

SEATON with Linda Stone

SEATON Bowling Club's first fixture of the week was against HONITON on Monday evening in the East of Exe League. Seaton banked 10 points for a two-rink win and an overall 79-56 win. Seaton's top rink was Angie Mayhew, Ruby Grigg, Linda Stone & Dave Yardley (26-12).

On Wednesday the Ladies played in the next round of the Grace Matthews competition against MADEIRA B. The weather started off with showers and then heavier rain, but the ladies are made of stern stuff and carried on playing. Seaton won the two wood and four wood singles, triples and rink and now progress to the next round where they will play Madeira A.

In the afternoon all three of the over 60s men's teams played at home. The B team played CULM VALE C winning with the maximum eight points. Top rink, with an exceptional 33-8 win, was Ed Backhouse, Bob Scull & Dave Yardley. The C team played BELMONT C winning on both rinks and by 39 shots to 33. Top triple was Glen Elliot, Reg Pluck & John Bellamy (21-14).

The only friendly of the week was played on the artificial green at AXMINSTER on Thursday where Seaton lost heavily 87-47. The top triple was Esdre Keller, Ian Manchester & Malcolm Carvell.

FENITON with Roger Smith

THE week started with a two-hour bowls session for 32 children from Feniton Primary School.

The session was run by Ian Veitch who has just gained his BDA Level 2 coaching award.

In the County Trophy Competition the men's team enjoyed a comfortable 91-61 win against OTTERY ST MARY.

Players wanted

CHARD United start their pre-season training with a new first team manager Paul Macklin at the helm as they look to freshen things up.

Training begins tonight (Tuesday) at 615pm at Jocelyn Park Chard. Then training will be EVERY Wednesday at 6.15pm.

All three teams are looking for new players to bolster their squads for the new campaign ahead, specifically committed individuals who want to test themselves in the Premier Division. For further details contact Paul Macklin on 07921 842321.

Milwey Rise FC is holding a club night on Saturday (July 9th) at Cloakham Lawns commencing 6pm with a barbecue and a range of activities, quiz, darts, skittles etc.

This is a great opportunity for all players - existing and new - to come and sign-on to continue the success of last season and the promotion that went with it.

Pre-season training nights will commence on Wednesday 13th July from 6-30 to 8pm at Cloakham Lawns. Again, anyone interested in is more than welcome.

◆ THE Axminster Hospital Cup committee is holding it's AGM at Axminster Town FC's Tiger Way Ground on Sunday, July 10th (7-7.30pm).

Any news faces willing to join the committee will be more than welcome. For more information call Pete Garner on 07795 127488.
